

Southern St., Lecanto. This meeting will be an informal question-and-answer session. Members and guests are encouraged to bring genealogy questions for an informal exchange of ideas and suggestions.

Many of our members have had years of experience in researching family history and can help answer questions. Guests are welcome to attend. For questions, call Mary Ann at 382-5515 or visit www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/flccgs2.

Healing Mass set at church

The Rev. Howie McGraw, OSA, founder and leader of the Marian Healing Ministry of the Augustinians, will celebrate a Healing Mass at 7 p.m. Wednesday at the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church, 1401 Country Club Blvd. in Citrus Springs.

Everyone is invited to this very special Healing Mass, which imparts a gift of love and understanding that both heals and renews, involving not only the mental and physical, but the emotional spirit as well.

Zumbatomic demo on tap for kids

Is your child lacking exercise? Does your child love to be in a group setting? Does your child love music? Does music make your child dance? If you answered yes to any of these questions, then Zumbatomic is just what you are looking for.

Zumbatomic is dance fitness for ages 4 through 12, and is part of the Zumba Fitness Program. Bring children ages 4 through 7 and youths ages 8 through 12 for a free demonstration of Zumbat-

Hospice steps up for environment

Special to the Chronicle
Volunteers and staff of Hospice of Citrus County gathered on a recent weekend to begin planting thousands of wetland plants at the new construction site on Periwinkle Lane in Homosassa. The new building, on the south end of the 12-acre site, will provide space for the clinical team that serves patients and families on the west coast of Citrus County, a Thrift Shoppe and the new Wings Center for Education. The northern end of the property will be preserved in its natural state. Volunteers are planting pickerelweed, duck potato, canna, maidencane, soft rush, arrowhead, string lilly and burrmarigold to improve the habitat for local species of animals and birds. Volunteers, from left, were: Joseph Foster, Malcolm Berry, Dianne Pesula, Bonnie Saylor, Ed Pesula, Linda Baker, Kathy Horgan, Jonathan Beard and Anthony Palumbo.

'Misadventure' keeps audience on toes fet style.

Tickets a may be res
Fran Pierce
Georgia Ba

Orien Habita

For those families who learn more about Humanitarianism is Sunday at the St. Presbyterian Road 44 in Lecanto.

Applicants are required for a Home Orientation is scheduled for their present inadequate, a Citrus County HUD income.

Orientation is at 7 a.m. and runs until noon. Applications are accepted and distributed within 30 days of children to the more information call 563-2121.

Fundraiser to provide

Chilson's Center is up a special fundraiser in support of the Florin City Library For Troops program.

The garage sale will be 10 percent of the proceeds from all tickets sold. Bring in a Friends of the Florin City Library flyer is available at all libraries.

Through the Friends of the Florin City Library ships books to local men and women who are in the military. They are physically accessible to the library. They n